ST. JOHN EAGLE

Message from Pastor Lesemann

He will proclaim justice to the Gentiles. Matthew 12:18

Does Jesus care about the Presidential Election? Whose side is Jesus really on? Who does He agree with—the oppressed or the oppressors?

Naturally, Jesus is on the side of the oppressed. Matthew saw that He was just like the prophet had said He would be: one who wouldn't break a bruised reed or quench a smoldering wick. He had compassion for the mistreated and dejected. He invited the working class and the oppressed into His presence. He knew how hard it was for a rich man to get to heaven.

Still, it is impossible to say one political party has sole right to Jesus. Nor can you confine Him to a particular political agenda. He's the Savior of all people and His criticism is aimed at all of us because we all need His forgiveness. The lost and dejected are found in every political party and in every social class. What did Jesus say about the wealthy man Zacchaeus? "He also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost" (Luke 19:9-10).

How then does He carry out justice forward to victory? Not with usual political means. Christ doesn't use propaganda, He doesn't challenge people to debate, He doesn't send His disciples to demonstrate and shout slogans. "Nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets" (Matthew 12:19). People can win victories for justice in that way, but again not Christ.

For Christ, it's a matter of achieving the victory over evil itself and over our own old Adam. The decisive battle took place on Good Friday. Christ was silent, and the masses screamed in the streets. Christ Himself became the bruised reed and smoldering wick that His opponents—the priests, the politicians and the people—thought they could crush and extinguish. Then justice achieved the victory—first and foremost our lost right to be God's children was restored, but also God's righteous Law wasn't revoked by Christ's death but fulfilled—and that victory for justice echoes in every heart that Christ has the power over. Now a new constitution exists: Our Lord is one and we are all brothers. See to the best in others; you live to serve. It is a victory will not be complete until Christ returns. Until then the battle rages. God's Law demands both truth and justice yet His mercy will prevail.

So whose side are we on? With God's help we are on His side where He stands—under His protection, shielded by His atonement, enveloped by His forgiveness, saturated by His love. As His willing servant, may we always be prepared to stand up for His justice and make room for His love. May we always be willing to help those who are forgotten, left out, and badly treated. May we always be ready to stand up against injustices and abuse and quickly admit our wrongs.

Lord, lead Your justice to victory, in my heart and in my deeds, in our people and in the whole world. (Adapted from "To Live with Christ" Daily Devotions by Bo Giertz)

In His grace,

Pastor Bruce H. Lesemann

Executive Director Henry Hardt called the meeting to order at 11:15 am.

Pastor Lesemann's devotion expanded upon 1 Cor. 12:27: "All His Parts." Each Christian is an important piece in the Body of Christ. Our contribution helps it live, move, and work effectively. Ask God for the power of His Holy Spirit to grant us this power.

Board of Youth - Jerry Johnson

Five St. John high schoolers will attend the Senior Youth Gathering in Des Moines next month. Next July three kids will go to the National Youth Gathering with nine from Grace Lutheran. Fund raisers will be forthcoming.

The Banana Bunch Bible Study meets next Sunday. They plan a progressive Reformation dinner. In December, they'll go caroling, and they'll attend a hockey game in January.

Board of Education - Jerry Johnson

This board is working on the Christmas Eve service. Faithbuilders continues to use the Buck Denver program. This mission project is Kristin Matasovsky.

Board of Trustees - Dave Dose

The trustees are working through Renae's health issues.

Bob Fletcher has hung 10 plastic hooks under the lights in the sanctuary for the evergreen garlands to hang from.

Kevin Jesse is getting information and prices on a new furnace. Mike Overmohle has suggested that it be installed in a second-story room rather than on the roof; this would save money and make the furnace more accessible.

The trustees will work on their budget for 2013.

The new sump pump is working "okay."

A portion of the memorial funds for Renae Jesse purchased a CD recorder. We're back on the air at KAYL.

Board of Lay Ministers - Harlan Matasovsky

Schedule of upcoming events: Thanksgiving Eve service at 7 pm
Advent services at noon and 7 pm on December 5, 12, & 19.
Christmas Eve service at 6 pm
Christmas Day at 9 am
New Year's Eve at 6 pm

Pastor Lesemann will be in the Philippines from 10/27 through 11/13.
The lay ministers are working in their 2013 budget.

Board of Stewardship - Karen Fletcher

The 2013 offering envelopes are here. The board is working on Loyalty Sunday. They will make a few changes as to the special offerings.

Treasurer's Report - Karen Fletcher

Karen handed out a printed copy of the treasurer's report, which extends through 9/30. A full budget can be reviewed on the bulletin boards in the hall and in the vestibule. The summary budget figures will be included in the November newsletter.

Board of Evangelism - Audrey Gutz

Twelve St. John members have enjoyed each of the two monthly socials. The November one will feature only cards, no movie. None in December; they will resume in January 2013, and continue for three months. The board is working on getting pens with the church name, address, and phone number to be handed out to visitors and to members who wish to hand them out to people they call on.

Pastor Lesemann

Pastor requests prayers for him in the Philippines and for his family who won't be with him. Pastor Kuhn will be on call for that period and also from 11/19 through 11/23 when Pastor will again be gone.

The AA group has requested the use of the basement for three days (Feb 8 – 10) for a gathering of 30 people. Attendees will park across the streets from the church.

Vernon Winterhof was selected as our circuit's lay delegate to the national LCMS convention; Pastor Harmon from Newell will be the pastoral delegate. Stan Ullerich and Pastor Egger are the alternates, respectively.

Executive Director - Henry Hardt

The next parish planning meeting will be Sunday, November 18 at 11:15 am. The next voters' meeting will be Sunday, January 6, 2012 at 11:15 am. There will be a congregational budget-information meeting in the Fireside Room on Sunday, December 16 at 11:15 am; it will be the first agenda item of the parish planning meeting. Directors of church boards are asked to submit their 2013 budgets to Hardt by Sunday, December 2.

Our St. John budget is currently $2,000 behind, the difference between the budget figures and the actual receipts.

Hardt reported about the set-aside funds for the 2013 deductible IRA health reimbursement account. He has filed for and received a tax credit for $3,370.97 from the IRS because the federal government provides same to non-profit organizations which provide health insurance to their employees to encourage employers to continue providing such insurance.

The parish planning board extends many thanks to volunteers helping out Renae.

Hardt adjourned the meeting at noon. We closed by praying the Lord's Prayer.

St. John Pancake Supper - November 11th — A Pancake Supper is a long-standing tradition of the St. John congregation. It was started many years ago by the men in the LLL.

This year it is being organized by the Christian Fellowship Society. Since the proceeds benefit the entire congregation, all members are asked to volunteer to assist. There are tasks for youth to adults.... from selling tickets, frying the cakes, helping in the dining room and kitchen. Please sign up on the volunteer sheet in the entry; sign up early and get the task you prefer. This year the proceeds have been designated for the Capital Improvement Fund.

Be sure to support this endeavor by your volunteer service and bringing your friends and neighbors to this evening of fellowship.

Funeral Services

Funeral services for Betty Ploeger, age 78, were held September 24, 2012 at 10:00 am. Following the service, a luncheon was served. Group 1 was in charge. Those furnishing and serving the food included Phyllis Southwick, Lois Sahl, Lois Lytle, Joann Oatman, Pat Boisen, Marvel Rosdail, Diane Krueger, Loretta Rehnstrom, and Linda Falck.

Additional salads, cakes, and bars were furnished by Patty Barnes, Kyle Cejka, Sally Wilkens, Donna Dose, Claire Benna, Pom Cook, Lori Dicks, Marilyn Mittelstadt, Donna Truelsen, and Lil Cornell.

Additional workers were Suzanne Winterhof and Pastor Lesemann.

Thank you to everyone.

Funeral services for Dorothy Brecher, age 98, were held on October 10 at 1:00 pm. Following the service, bars and cookies were served. Group 2 was in charge. Those furnishing and serving included Donna Truelsen, Joann Lussman, Loretta Rehnstrom, and Renae Norwood.

Thank you to all who helped.

A funeral luncheon was held for Maxine Magnussen, age 93, on Tuesday, October 23, 2012. HyVee catered scalloped potatoes with ham, salad, and cakes. Group 2 was in charge of serving the lunch. Those helping to serve were Donna Truelsen, Marilyn Mittelstadt, Suzanne Winterhof, Maxine Schramm, and Linda Falck.

Thank you, ladies, for helping out.

Ladies' Aid Met October 3rd

Can you name the first female missionary/teacher in the Christian Church? You could, if you had attended Joann Oatman's topic at the Ladies' Aid meeting held October 3. Her fascinating presentation on Priscilla, a helper of Paul at Ephesus, reminded us of the important role that women can play in the church.

Lois Sahl was our hostess for the meeting and Joann Oatman led devotions. Fourteen members and one guest answered roll call telling of a Halloween memory which included early season snowstorms and Halloween merrymaking.

A note from Lela Koth was read; she is always happy to hear about events at St. John. Due to the death of Betty Ploeger, Joanne Lussman was elected to serve as treasurer of the group. The treasurer books have been audited, and it was noted that some have not paid for altar flowers. Plans were also made for observing LWML Sunday on October 7.

The meeting was adjourned with prayers for the Haskall Indian Mission in Kansas (supported by the LWML) and the Lord's Prayer.

Fellowship Society Tours Ida Grove Historical Museums

The Christian Fellowship Society traveled to Ida Grove on Sunday, October 7, to tour the Grant #5 schoolhouse and the Moorehead Stage House. Seated in our desks with inkwells, we enjoyed a citizenship lesson by one of the volunteer teachers. We saw materials used by teachers in the early days and were reminded of the primitive furnishings in schools of the era. We learned the Moorehead House (Ida Grove's earliest home) was the stop for the stage between Fort Dodge and Sioux City. Besides being a home, it served meals to stagecoach passengers and was the business hub of the town. Mr. Moorehead had to maintain a good relationship with the Indians in the area, but the home did have a safe hiding place for children.

Those present gathered at the Family Table for supper and a brief business meeting. The group approved organizing St. John's annual Pancake Supper which will be November 11 and asking the entire congregation to help. Proceeds were designated for the Capital Improvement Fund. The group also approved a financial gift to St. John's Friendship Fund.

Music Notes - The Advent-Christmas season is nearing, and plans for special music are in the air. The choir is rehearsing works from a cantata based on Christmas carols. Why not join the choir in this endeavor! Rehearsals are at 8 pm on Wednesday. Plans call for the choir and instrumentalists to enhance other services.

Know Your Church Family - Due to space limitations in this newsletter, these will be published next month.

Giving Thanks

By: Celeste Cummins

“In every thing give thanks” (1 Thessalonians 5:18a).

Many years ago, I heard someone explain this verse with these words, “It doesn’t say for everything give thanks, but in everything give thanks.” That concept is quite true. We may not be able to be thankful for everything that is happening in our lives (the bad economy, deaths, illness, family problems), but we can be thankful in the midst of those circumstances. That’s a tall order and at times it is so impossible for us to do. We want everything to go our way. We want the “good” life (however you define that because it’s different for each person). When things are not going our way, we certainly don’t want to be thankful! There are times we would rather follow the advice Job’s wife gave to him, “Curse God and die” (Job 2:9). So, how do we avoid following this advice?

I think the key is to read the advice in another of Paul’s epistles. In Philippians 4:11b-13, he wrote, “I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do everything through him who gives me strength.” Paul was content in “any and every situation.” He was content when he was hungry. He was content when he was “in want” (lacking necessities). So, was he also content in his shipwrecks and while he was imprisoned? He must have been because he and Silas were singing hymns in prison (Acts 16:25). In other words, they were being thankful in their situation. Undoubtedly, they were not thankful for their current situation (would you be thankful if you were in prison?!).

I have noticed that content people are generally happy, thankful people, as well. They are able to see the good things in life and keep a positive outlook. Because they are content, they do not have a need to grumble or complain. Rather, they spend their time being joyful and appreciative.

Paul’s secret to contentment, joy, and thankfulness can be found in Philippians 3:14. He writes, “I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.” Paul’s secret is that he is content because he is going to heaven! Whatever trials, problems, fears, ills he faces here on earth do not bother him because his contentment lies in heaven.

How do we get such contentment? We turn to Jesus. Hebrews 12:2a tells us, “Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith...” When our eyes are fixed on Him, they cannot look elsewhere for contentment, happiness, or joy. It will only be found in Jesus!
